(Don Gibson)

It's too soon to know if I can forget her
My heart has been broken into many pieces
And it's too soon to know.

Time passes slow will I ever know
If I can forget her and not let it show
But it's too soon to know.

News travels fast when a love affair ends
People keep asking what happened to them.

But it's too soon to know if I can forget her
My heart has been broken into many pieces
And it's too soon to know.

My heart has been broken into many pieces
And it's too soon to know...
