I feel so alone as I walk from my home with no one to help me share my blues
Oh what could be worse than be born with a curse
That everything you love you always lose I don't feel like talkin' I just feel like walkin' and keep on a hummin' uh uh uh [steel]
I'd feel better inside if I'd let go my pride Tell all my friends exactly what you've done
But what good would it do I still wouldn't have you

Forgive me if I cry and walk and hum
I don't feel like talkin' I just feel like walkin' and keep on a hummin' uh uh uh
