I said I'm leavin' this time we're through My love's run out there's nothing left for you But when your fingers reach for my hand you've got me in my weaker moments again
In my weaker moments I can't help the things I do
Just one kiss and I'm a callin' back to you Here I am once more givin' in you've got me in my weaker moments again [guitar]
Now that it's over I'll be alright I close my eyes and try to sleep tonight
But you come knocking and I'll give in you've got me in my weaker moments again

In my weaker moments I can't help the things I do
Just one kiss and I'm a callin' back to you Well look at me once more givin' in you've got me in my
weaker moments again
You've got me in my weaker moments again
