(Lois Mann - Henry Bernard - Murray Burns)

What am I gonna do now
She's gone, she's broken every vow
I'll forget her someday, somehow
What am I gonna do now?

Each time I think of the past
How love was mine and went away so fast
I've hurt as much as my heart will allow
What am I gonna do now?

I'm afraid of living alone
It looks like that's how I'll be from now on
To have her back I would humbly bow
What am I gonna do now?

--- Instrumental ---

To have her back I would humbly bow
Oh, what am I gonna do now?...
