give me a drink whatever you've got i want to spend some time in your spot you know we've searched this place for something to love without a trace what's mine is yours take the last piece of bread you can borrow my clothes and take a nap in my bed cause you know we've searched this place for something to love and i see your face it's all i think of for me today

you hold the string and i'll pull it tight i'm trying to be something you like oh you know we've searched this place for something to love and i see your face

so we've searched this place for something to love without a trace

i'll take a chance if you take a chance i'm willing to give it a chance

i'm willing go give it a chance
