I won't ever change a single thing about today
This might be the part when you will start
To feel the same

Once I get your name
I'm home, I'm homefree
You won't want no one but me

All this talk is cheap
Why don't we meet
Another way
I'll be in the park
Just after dark
What do you say?
Once I get you out
I'm home, I'm homefree
You won't need no one but me

Once I get your name
I'm home, I'm homefree
You won't need no one but me

And I'll start to believe
In love
Like it's real
Not a useless word
In a book
In a song
