hey there little love
yeah you took me for a ride all the way across the country we were waiting for our love to be realized but you hardly ever even looked at me yeah but you gave me no reason to be afraid but when you finally put your hands on me oh yeah you know I thought for sure I thought for sure i'd been saved so I let you in oh I let you in yeah then you took advantage of me and then I let you down oh I let you down by telling you I thought I might be falling into something oh yeah but you don't want and you don't need and you don't wait and you don't love but you don't know yeah you don't know how I feel so don't call me and don't write and don't you dare tell me that you miss me tonight cause I need someone who's going to be home when I get there

little love

now you tell me that what I do for a living yeah well it is actually a turn off for you cause I am just smiled at and touched yeah and my fingers my fingers are far too rough and then I tell you

"you know honey, love doesn't know distance" and then you turn around and look at me and say

"yeah but my arms do"

oh yeah but you

cause I need someone who's going be home when I get there little love oh my little love but my stomach hurts when I hear your name and so I just keep replaying the film of the time when you helped me off the stage and you know that if you think that this is game well I am not joking cause my heart she is tired she is tired of being broken so hey there

yeah you took me
you took me for a ride
