Be easy with love
Be easy with heartache Alone on your road that good thing might find you you're easy Darkness may come and cast its long shadow in the light of your day Be easy with friends Be easy with laughter and you'll keep it away Through your long night and through all your pain the Spirit Doctor say you know, you're gonna be alright and when you're better you're gonna do it all again Through your long night
and through all your pain

and when your'e better
oh, you do it all again So be easy with words Be easy with feelings when they almost care when you're almost there Go easy....
All that marks the power and the brilliance of our love Is traces in a moonlit night of a high suspended dove .and the path it flew, with its aim so true And its wings in sure formation showed a way we could not know would fill us with elation STILL RIOT
