Have i never, told you i love you?
Have i never, told you i care?
Have i never, told you how much i need you?
Have i ever, ever not been there?

If i never, told you i care
Girl i swear to you, it's not because the feelings not there
I promise to you from the top of my soul
To the bottom of my heart, girl don't you know
I loved you then
I love you now
And will forever more

Have i never, told you i love you?
Have i never, told you the words?
Baby, i love you (you know i love you)
Just know that i love you

Have i ever, told you i miss you?
Have i ever, hurt your heart?
Girl i never, ever meant to mistreat you
I could never, no it would break your heart
If i ever, cause you to feel
The words i speak straight from my heart
Are not for real
I promise to you from the tip of my heart
To the depth of my soul
I pray that you know
I love you now
I loved you then
And will forever more

Have i never, told you i love you?
Have i never, told you the words?
Baby, i love you (you know i love you)
Just know that i love you

Oh baby (baby)
Baby
You will always be my lady
And i promise, i will never break your heart

Cause i love you (love you)
I need you (need you)
And will forever

Have i never, told you i love you?
Have i never, told you the words?
Baby, i love you (you know i love you)
Just know that i love you

Have i never, told you i love you?
Have i never, told you the words?
Baby, i love you (you know i love you)
Just know that i love you
