

Few Left Standing "Against All"

Visit "Against All" on MotoLyrics.com

From the start
You came to disrupt and confront, to start a fire
Turn everything right side up, never gave up
Knowing the end was Your death

You took our illness, You took our disease
You took our illness, You took our disease

Self sacrifice was Your way, abandoned by all
Embraced suffering, You against the world
Your words stand fast and true
Rejection didn't faze You
Sacrificed on the altar of the world

You proved them wrong, You are the true rebel
You proved them wrong, You are the true rebel
You proved them wrong, You are the true rebel
You proved them wrong, You are the true rebel

You proved them wrong, You are the true rebel
You proved them wrong, You are the true rebel
