I've given you my love,
I've given you more
You shout I was so sweet
Made me walk at that door
Shout me turn back time
Try once more

It's the season
To give me a reason
Please don't judge me
As an act of treason

Now you have to find out
Now what's going on
Caught in think about me
Since the damage is done
What is at this time
You see there's no more

There's no need
To beg a plea for me now
You made your choice
Now you live with it now

You know it's my love you're pleading
It's more than just my love you're needing
Now I give you monsters from feeding
From my soul, and my heart that's haling

My love is pleading
My love you're needing
Monsters are stealing
My heart is healing

You say is hard for you

To be all alone
Had you thought about me
On the chance as you gone
There is no wrong, all right
'Cause I'm done

You're the reason
For a hunting season
Please don't judge me
As an act of treason

You know it's my love you're pleading
It's more than just my love you're needing
Now I give you monsters from feeding
From my soul, and my heart that's haling

My love is pleading
My love you're needing
Monsters are stealing
My heart is healing

Now face the truth and go now
Now leave the truth and go now
Now hide the truth and go now

You know it's my love you're pleading
It's more than just my love you're needing
Now I give you monsters from feeding
From my soul, and my heart that's haling

My love is pleading
My love you're needing
