"No more lies"

Staying here for you now
Has been my worst crime
Something I swore not to do
Through my whole life
Why did I ever listen
To your promises
When nothing changing
You and all the lies you say

As I leave,
All you say is nothing but the same
Face the truth
You can't control my fate

No more lies,
It's painful to me but I'm free at least
No more lies,
No fear, no silence, no about of the past

It seems now that you worst
Fear has gone crushing down
It seconds me to see
How little you are now
I'll never find myself
Standing again right here
Where I couldn't breathe before
'Cause now I have no fear

Would you take
The pain you gave when I was there
I doubt
You have the strength to spare

No more lies,
It's painful to me but I'm free at least
No more lies,
No fear, no silence, no about of the past

No more lies,
It's painful to me but I'm free at least
No more lies,

No fear, no silence, no about of the past

Never again will I be there
Like I was there for you before
Never again will I be there
Like I was there for you before
Never again will I be there
Like I was there for you before
Never again will I be there
Like I was there for you before

Now nothing is the same
Now nothing is the same
And gone is the pain
No care with the blame
'Cause gone is the pain
