You were always there for me
You show me, I can count on you
When I need someone to
Be there when I'm down
I'm not scare, to live without you
Just don't want to try to
It takes too much, to know what love is
Show me that I'm right
The way you love me makes me feel again
Feel that I can't deny
The way I feeling makes me love again
Want you by my side
When I'm with you I feel so free again
Your love is all I need
I find my self in a loose wheel again
I love you baby
You make me so happy to me
If I could turn my bear hands on dawn
I won't change nothing about you
My baby I'm not scare, to live without you
I just don't want to try to
It takes too much, to know what love is
Show me the I'm right
The way you love me makes me feel again
Feel that I can't deny
The way I feeling makes me love again
Want you by my side
When I'm with you I feel so free again
Your love is all I need
I find my self in a loose wheel again
I love you baby
Fell you, hold you
The way I fell, the way I fell
Show me that I'm right
The way you love me makes me feel again
Feel that I can't deny
The way I feeling makes me love again
Want you by my side
When I'm with you I feel so free again
Your love is all I need
I find my self in a loose wheel again
I love you baby

The way you love me makes me feel again
Feel that I can't deny
The way I feeling it makes me love again
Want you by my side
When I'm with you I feel so free again
Your love is all I need
I find my self in a loose wheel again
I love you baby.
