My inner voice keeps pushing me
To cross the bridge of destiny
This small distance is such a big distance (for me to take)
I have the tender taste of time
Swim again for tight
Does anybody understand this feeling?

CHORUS:

I'm standing here on the edge with the feeling of moving on
I feel like I'm falling down
The power inside my heart feels still the emotion to get me on I'm standing here on the edge, with the eeling of moving on
I need to take control
The searchings they can't be wrong
I'll take my chances, I'm on my own...
oh vertigo, oh vertigo

It's time for change, I'm glad enough, a different changing
Brake the bridges of my past Disconnect the guilt inside
I love to feel a a big distance
I love to feel I fly
Does anybody understand this feeling...

(CHORUS 2x)
