In this quiet place again
I can hear You on the wind
Whispering to me
In this quiet place again
I have found a friend
Who understands me
Where You are is where I want to be
In Your arms You will comfort me
Far away from everything I used to be
You know I have come do far
To be where You are
In this quiet place again
You're speaking to my heart
And I can know Your will
In this quiet place again
You tell me from the start
Follow and I will
