Yeah, brothers to the left, brothers to the right
No one left in between
And if you look too far ahead or look too far behind
The heart, it goes sight unseen

Well, he'd like to but he can't, she looks the other way
Who that leave to face the heat?
The lameless need a home, crippled need a hand
Hungry need something to eat

If we can learn to live again
Every woman, every man
We can become hand in hand (yes we can)

Well, I'm lucky for ny job, I love to live my life
I thank the Lord for my health
And I'm not pointing fingers, not at anyone
I'm sittin' here with myself

If we can learn to live again
Every woman, every man
We can become hand in hand
(Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can)

Brothers to the left, brothers to the right
No one left in between
And if you look too far ahead or look too far behind
The heart, it goes sight unseen (sight unseen)

If we can learn to live again
Every woman, every man
We can become hand in hand (say it again, say it again)

If we can learn to live again
Every woman, every man
We can become hand in hand
We can become hand in hand
We can become hand in hand

Oh, hand hand in hand

We can become hand in hand
We can become hand in hand
We can become hand in hand
(Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can)
(Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can)
(Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can)
