"Lookin' For Me Somewhere"

As I write, I watch the night go down
And I see the lonely twinklin' lights of town
And I think about a girl, she's out there in the world
She's lookin' for, she's lookin' for me somewhere

I heard her sing once at the rodeo
She wore a rhinestone suit of white and gold
And as she sang and played, she stole my heart away
She's lookin' for, she's lookin' for me somewhere

She's lookin' for me somewhere, I know
She's lookin' for me high and lookin' low
Oh, to live and die, it seems is a waste without a dream
She's lookin' for, she's lookin' for me somewhere

She's lookin' for me somewhere, I know
She's lookin' for me high and lookin' low
Oh, to live and die, it seems is a waste without a dream
She's lookin' for, she's lookin' for me somewhere

And as the morning sun begins to rise
Alone, I go to bed and I close my eyes
And I dream about a girl, out there in the world
She's lookin' for, she's lookin' for me somewhere
She's lookin' for, she's lookin' for me somewhere
