"Breathe In Me"

I've been going around in circles and I don't know what to do

I don't know where to find my way back to the truth

I need a reminder of how life used to feel

'Cause the face in the mirror isn't looking too familiar

I can say that I used to know a lot about you

But it seems I've fallen from you

So I can say that I need to know more about you

So now I'm on my knees singing

Breathe in me 'cause I fall so easily

How can it be that you would rescue me

Breathe in me 'cause I'm broken on my knees

So breathe in me

All the time I have wasted is not just my own

I got to get back to you, I gotta find my way home

Before my world comes tumbling down

'Cause the longer I wait it gets harder to turn around

To see your eyes staring right through my soul

Oh but I know

That life begins when I die again and surrender

So now I'm on my knees singing

Breathe in me 'cause I fall so easily

How can it be that you would rescue me

Breathe in me 'cause I'm broken on my knees

Oh breathe in me

I can hear you calling to me

I can see you reaching for me

Offering your hand to guide me

Hold me close again and set me free

Breathe in me, breathe in me

Breathe in me, breathe

Breathe in me 'cause I fall so easily

How can it be that you would rescue me, oh

Breathe in me 'cause I'm broken on my knees

So breathe in me, breathe in me
I can say that I need to know more about you
