Stuck here on this highway
In a river of red lights
For at least another mile
There's no relief in sight
Feeling all alone but
From the radio comes
A thing or two remind me something I already know
In this moment You are here with me
In this moment You are closer then the air I breathe
You are the God who reigns in heaven
Its amazing indeed
That You are here with me
In this moment
A few things on my checklist
That I need to do downtown
So I step onto the sidewalk
Full of people all around
Someone said the city, it can be a lonely place
But even though I know I can't find one familiar face
In this moment You are here with me
In this moment You are closer then the air I breathe
You are the God who reigns in heaven
Its amazing indeed
That You are here with me
In this moment
Anywhere, any time Im on my own
I hold onto the promise
Ill never be alone
Even though it's midnight
And Im lying in the dark
I think of You up in heaven
And You are in my heart
In this moment You are here with me
In this moment You are closer then the air I breathe
You are the God who reigns in heaven
Its amazing indeed
That You are here with me
In this moment
You are here
