"Little Change"

You've seen it all before
You open up the door and I just turn away
Walk the other way

You offer so much more
Than I could ever ask for
But I say thanks anyway

And I go on and on alone
Make believing I can make it on my own

I think it's time for me to make a change
And start walking back to You
Before I go so far away
That I can't hardly hear You

Reaching out
Calling the prodigal
I said I'd never be
Now what I need is a little change

I've played the game before
But now the game is taking more than I can give
And I'm dying to give in

But You're holding out for me
But what You're holding out for me I can barely see
My visions' so dim

I try but I can hardly recognize
This light that should be blinding my eyes

I think it's time for me to make a change
And start walking back to You
Before I go so far away
I can't hardly see You

Reaching out
But calling the prodigal
I said I'd never be
Now what I need is a little change

A little change

I think it's time for me to make a change
And start walking back, walking back
Before I go so far away
That I can't hardly hear You

Reaching out
But calling the prodigal
I said I'd never be
Now what I need is a little change

I need a little change
I need is a little change
I need a little change
