O child you've never known how I really feel
Because you've never been shown
O child, you've never known that my love is real
Because you've never been shown

I'm about to show you for myself
So listen to me
Don't need nobody else, 'cause

You are mine, you are loved, you have always been thought of
When you hurt I feel it every time
You are mine, you are loved and I'm never giving up
Till I've dried all the tears you cry

Long before you took a breath
I took your pain upon my chest
I knew your name, I heard you call
And it was worth it all, you are worth it all

O child, it wasn't fair how they walked away
Left you standing there
My child, I saw your tears, was with you everyday
Through the lonely years

And I'm about to bring back what they lost
So listen to me
Forget about the cost, 'cause

You are mine, you are loved, you have always been
thought of
When you hurt I feel it every time, every time
You are mine, you are loved and I'm never giving up
Till I've dried all the tears you cry

As long before you took a breath
I took your pain upon my chest
I knew your name, I heard you call
It was worth it all, you are worth it all

No matter where you go, I'll come and find you
You are precious to me, my everything

No matter what they've done I will restore you You're a masterpiece to me, only I can see That underneath the hurt and the pain is a picture of me

O child, where did you go?
Please don't walk away I love you so
So here I come to say

You are mine, you are loved, you have always been
thought of
When you hurt I feel it every time
You are mine, you are loved and I'm never giving up
Till I've dried all the tears you cry

Long before you took a breath
I took your pain upon my chest
I knew your name, I heard you call
And it was worth it all, it was worth it all
You are worth it all, you are worth it all
It was worth it all
