No drinks, no drugs, no cigarettes, no loose women because I'm weak

And that's all fine for you to say, but I'm to shy to even speak

I can't go out in the world without a little fire in my soul

That puts the fight into me
You push me and I just can't let it roll Roll

I don't know if I should drink or stay at home alone
keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I don't know I'm alive
Give me fire

I don't know whether to drink or stay at home alone
keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I
don't know I'm alive

There was a time
don't you forget
when I was green
and you were red

All boastful lies no great surprise
what shit comes outta my drunken head

I met a woman that night she loved me for the stories that I told

But when the booze ran out my silence left her ring hand feeling cold Cold

keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I don't know I'm alive
Give me fire

I don't know whether to drink or stay at home alone
keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I don't know I'm alive

Give me fire

No drinks, no drugs, no cigarettes, nothing but silence caused by doubt

There was a good boy inside me but the landlord tried to kick that good boy out That good boy out

I don't know if I should drink or stay at home alone
keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I don't know I'm alive
Give me fire

I don't know whether to drink or stay at home alone
keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I don't know I'm alive
Give me fire

You give me fire

You give me fire

You give me fire

You give me fire

You give me fire

You give me fire

You give me fire

You give me fire

Ooohhhh

I don't know if I should drink or stay at home alone
keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I don't know I'm alive
Give me fire

I don't know whether to drink or stay at home alone
keeping out of trouble never learning nothing but I don't know I'm alive
Give me fire
