Don't leave me alone
Don't leave me alone

Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone

Don't leave me alone

Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone

When I was a kid we went camping and I wrestled a bear
A jury found me guilty of murder and I'm facing the chair
But I dug a tunnel out of my cell and escaped on a train
You know that I would have to kill you if I told you my real name

Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone

I'm humanoid I'm paranoid
I'm humanoid I'm paranoid

I can't avoid lies

I have to take a job in the daytime just so I will fit in I'm currently employed by the Council where I'm emptying bins
I carry out assignments at midnight cause thats where I work best
Last night I flew out to Bikini for the nuclear test

Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone
I'm humanoid I'm paranoid
I'm humanoid I'm paranoid

Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone
Please don't leave me alone

I'm humanoid I'm paranoid
I'm humanoid I'm paranoid

I can't avoid lies
I can't avoid lies
I can't avoid lies
I can't avoid lies

The aliens have planted a microchip inside of my chest
Tomorrow I'm remixing the White Label for Kayne West Does nothing that I say to you ever make you concerned?
I hope that it's too late I hope that all my bridges are burned

Please don't leave me alone

I'm humanoid I'm paranoid

Please don't leave me alone

I'm humanoid I'm paranoid
I'm humanoid I'm paranoid

Please don't leave me
don't leave me
alone

Please don't leave me
alone
