Last days,
last days.

As I stare off the stage and try to understand why you feel that I am someone you can id with, how ?
When you and I come from two totally polar opposite lifestyles.
Under normal circumstances I would be waking you and your rich parents up at gunpoint.
Demanding the combination to the wall safe.
While your little sister screams suffering from pistol-whipped pain.
Or looking back at you in a courtroom filled with absolutely none of my peers.
Why are you here ? Is this some voyeuristic bullshit ?
See black man sing ?
Or maybe, just maybe, you've been subjected to so many audio drive by's and gang shootings that you yourself have become numb to the pain like me.
And you - check this out - have become insane from overdoses of reality.
Well stomach this, at the rate we're going right now white boy, yeah you, you and I will die holding each other's throats.
That's real, the world's at war, we're at war.
Check yourself, don't be me check your goddamn self.
It's goin down 1997, see the light, red lasers rip through my neighborhood at night, time is short.
Homocide is the number one sport.

Last days,
last days,

these are the last days.

So now that all the reality's soaked, I and you start to reanalyze every word I ever said, am I a racist ?

Or am I just someone who tells it how the fuck it is ?

Well the truth of the thing is I was raised on crime.

Walking through an environment so filled with so much hate,

honesty I do not feel that you are able to comprehend the magnitude of the evil.

But trip this, the
