And who are you me pretty fair maid and who are you me honey She answered to me quite modestly:
I am the mother's darling
With me tooryay, Fol de diddle day
Dire Fol de didle dairie oh

And will you come to me mother's house when the moon is shining clearly I'll open the door and I'll let you in and divil the one would hear us
With me tooryay, Fol de diddle day
Dire Fol de diddle dairie oh

So I went to her house in the middle of the night when the moon was shining clearly She opened the door and she led me in and divil the one did hear us
With me tooryay, Fol de diddle day
Dire Fol de diddle dairie oh

Then she took me by the lily-white hand and she led me to the table Saying "There's plenty of wine for a soldier boy to drink it if you're able"
With me tooryay, Fol de diddle day
Dire Fol de diddle dairie oh

Then I got up and I made the bed and I made it nice and aisy Then I got and I laid her down saying "Lassie, are you able?"
With me tooryay, Fol de diddle day
Dire Fol de diddle dairie oh

And there we lay till the break of the day
and divil the one did hear us Then I arose and put on me clothes saying "Lassie, I must leave you"
With me tooryay, Fol de diddle day
Dire Fol de diddle dairie oh

And when will ye return again and when will we get married When broken shells make Christmas bells we might well get married
With me tooryay, Fol de diddle day
Dire Fol de diddle dairie oh
