I dream about you
And every word you said
I can't believe it but this time I'm not scared
I'm smiling at you - wash it all away
I'm getting stronger - no more yesterday

And it's so hard to believe
I don't want you to deceive me
I am lost inside a maze
When I'm thinking of the days they left so many scars
Upon me so

It's hard to believe and this feeling's so fragile
I want you to come - come as you are
It's hard to believe and this feeling's so fragile
Don't let this feeling slip away
Don't let this feeling go away

I'm so afraid that the time won't be alright
I'm so afraid to hurt you deep inside
I wanna believe it - give me confidence
I really wanna see you - no more self defence

And it's so hard to believe
I don't want you to deceive me
I am lost inside a maze
When I'm thinking of the days they left so many scars
Upon me so

It's hard to believe and this feeling's so fragile
I want you to come - come as you are
It's hard to believe and this feeling's so fragile
Don't let this feeling slip away
Don't let this feeling go away

And it's so hard to believe
I don't want you to deceive me
I am lost inside a maze
When I'm thinking of the days they left so many scars
Upon me so

It's hard to believe and this feeling's so fragile
I want you to come - come as you are
It's hard to believe and this feeling's so fragile
Don't let this feeling slip away
Don't let this feeling go away

It's hard to believe and this feeling's so fragile
I want you to come - come as you are
It's been a long time, but the feeling's still out
There
I want you to come - come as you are

It's hard to believe - and it's so hard to believe
I want you to come - come as you are
It's been a long time - it's been a long time
Don't let this feeling slip away
Don't let this feeling go away
