When no one's telling you what to say,
or how to feel.
You're stayin' true to yourself,
honesty is real.
Well I know I've heard,
I've tried,
you know nothing at all.
I've taken pressure from my peers,
I've taken falls,
when life's so complicated.
Too late, too late to follow,
why don't you walk away.
Well I couldn't help but feel,
the walls were comin' down.
Felt so deluded with illusions to myself,
I had to follow for I knew not what to do.
When will you realise you're the one you're lying to.
when life's so complicated.
Too late, too late to follow,
why don't you walk away.
Too late, too late to follow,
why don't you walk away.
Too late, too late (x2).
When life's so complicated.
Too late, too late to follow.
Why don't you walk away (x2).
Too late, too late to follow.
Why don't you walk away (x2).
Just walk away (x4)
