There's a place in my mind,
where I leave it all behind.
A place I store the fools,
that have put me down before.
There's a place in my mind,
where these fools are locked,
behind a door.
You know I'll never let them out,
'til they recognise that.
One day I'll be gone.
You'll be here and I'll be gone.
You won't know what I'm looking.
You'll be here and I'll be gone.
Young lady think about the past
and how you've done me wrong
and how you've done me wrong.
Before this time,
young lady think about your friends
and not yourself next time.
If you get the chance another time,
now you're all full grown,
I've left you all alone.
Are you happy? Did you want it?
Did you need it? You can have it!
