Demands on you and what you're apt to do.
They dwell inside then leave you on the outside,
as aggression.
Do you need attention?
Do you need attention?
This situation is not what it seems.
This situation will soon be at ease.
This situation will leave you if you let it.
It counts on you to get what you can achieve and you can strive.
It'll leave you on the outside,
as aggression.
Do you need attention?
Do you need attention?
This situation.
