When I see the gleam in your eyes, I hesitate run and hide

Keep all the good things I'm thinkin' to myself Should be no reason to hide cuz I know you'd be flattered

It's just that I'm afraid that you'd turn away
If I saw we can share some time, please keep in mind the importance is in two people reaching out

If you question my motives, just let down your walls
I will look at you and you'll see what's in me It's just a fantasy I have of being with you, so I can show you how much you mean to me Can you see me smilin' at you I can see you smilin' at me or is it just that I'm living in a dream
