I (x2)

i have seen enough,
Ya i knew what i wanted,
Ya knew what i want
Ya i knew what i wanted
Ya i knew i couldnt have it all stumbling in the dark, ya i knew you were watching ,

You knew what i wanted Ya you knew what i wanted ya you knew with no lights at all (you knew with no lights at all)

Never losing faith in you
im falling over and over
im falling over and over
Never losing faith in you
i see you turn completely

animals abored defense shatters
no, nothing else matters nothing else matters

ready launch, take it off

Struck oil and i feel rich Internal combustion
Ya i knew what i wanted
Ya i knew what i want ya i knew it all along (i knew it all along)

im falling over and over
Never losing faith in you
i see you turn completely

Still so glad to feel alive (X3)

Ripples (X3)

(X2)

Never loosing faith in you

im falling over and over

Never loosing faith in you

i see you turn completly (and reach me)
