The worst is still to come (Don't lose control)
That new reality inside of me and you it's not gone (A shame)
This time the trick won't turn on anymore
No faith, no breath, plastic thought choked your cries.

Shatter all my dreams, the fire that one feed
My heart is not the same
A pessimistic silence lives under your ground

(A mistake) Things come and go so fast
I can't hold it my pride arise but not enough (My attitude)
I'm scared but I'm there
The lights of your life are out save me from his misery.

Obscurity, a state of mind is wasted
Insecurity inside my heart it's all broken
I lost control I tried to hold her but it brings me down
I play your game.
