Save your strength
For there will be a better day for you
A wasteful game of simple luck and truth
You're wrapped around, wrapped around, a minor thing
but what to do when all you need is blue skies
Blue skies ahead

Look around, baby look around
What you see is what you wanted to find

If it were up to me I'd save you from the sun
That burns your wings
And sends you back to square one
You're not invincible

I've lost count
I've lost count
But who's counting the cracks in the pavement from
up in the clouds
What a sight you are
For sore eyes
Will the dream let the dreamer out alive

You couldn't know where you're going

With your head in the sand everything looks upside down

But if you look around baby look around
Come too far to turn back now
You've got to run and hide it's almost over Luck is at your door you can't ignore her
Can you pick up the pieces now pick up

I've lost count
I've lost count
But who's counting the cracks in the pavement from
up in the clouds
What a sight you are
For sore eyes
Would the dream let the dreamer out alive

Your life has passed
My burden gone
And once my task
But I let you go
Try as I might I
Let you go
Finally fixed this hopeless start

So rest your tired tired tired eyes
