Sitting on a fence your heart can feel the warmth of the one who pulled you out of the cold Trying to walk the line, you don't know which way to go but your about to loose your hold Which way to fall to the wrong or to the right Jump to one side or fall in to the night.

It's all or nothing
But there's always something

Walking down life's road things try to hinder you at every turn What don't kill you makes you stronger but how far will you go just to learn
Your closer to the edge now but this is the very snare You've got to push through now remembering he's still there

It's all or nothing
But there's always something
It's all or nothing
But there's always something

Holding you back, no you won't fall
But you can't break through
If you don't give your all
I'ts all or nothing
