I thought my world was complete
I was living a life made on shaky ground
I was blinded so I couldn't sleep
I couldn't stand I thought I was drowning
I thought I was sinking
I thought I was dying

I found forever in your arms
And I know just right where I need to be
And I found forever in your arms
And I know just right where I feel free

Some nights I would lie all alone
Dreaming of you and the way things had been
You know I have no chance on my own
Now I can make it with you next to me

Now we are together
Now I found forever

I found forever in your arms
And I know just right where I need to be
And I found forever in your arms
And I know just right where I feel free

Somehow you came
And took all my pain away
I know I can't repay all the love you gave
All the love that you gave

I found forever in your arms
And I know just right where I need to be
And I found forever in your arms
And I know just right where I feel free

I found, I found forever
I found, forever in your arms
I found, I found forever
I know just right where I feel free
Where I feel free
