"My Heart Cries Out"

I see You coming closer
I feel You coming near
My heart melts
As I open my door
And all I see
Is You there
Yes my heart cries out

I see You, oh my God
And I need You in my heart
I feel You, oh my Lord
And I need You more than ever before

Time and time again You save me
Same as this, that I fall
I might as well be rendered helpless
Cause without You, I'm not at all

I see You, oh my God
And I need You in my heart
I feel You, oh my Lord
