(Lyrics, Music: Leitch, Triano)

Your feet still stuck in the snow, the tracks you made have disappeared
I cannot wait to see you close your eyes tonight
Can you see me standing against the wall that you built for me?

The nails in my hands from all the lies you thought were true

I cannot wait for you, I will not wait for you my friend
I need to get some rest before I fall asleep again

(Refrain)

Sparrow will fly high above the wind that brought you here

Sparrow will fly

Sparrow will fly high above the wind that brought you

Sparrow will fly

Oceans swell inside my mind but never will your sun dry the pain

The picture in my wallet is fading once again

Oh, mother, does she know how much I want to be her?

I cannot wait for you, I will not wait for you my friend

I need to get some rest before I fall asleep again

(Refrain)

Sleep my child, your time has come

Flowers lay across your body

I guess I should have waited for the sun to break the day

Guess I should have waited for the sun to break the
