I thought my world was complete
I was living a life made on shaky ground
I was blinded so I couldn't sleep
I couldn't stand I thought, I was drowning
I thought I was sinking, I thought I was dying

I fall forever in your arms
And I don't decide where I need to be
And I fall forever in your arms
And I don't decide where I feel free

Some nights I would lie all alone
Dreaming of you and the way things had been
You know, I had no chance on my own
Now, I can make it with you next to me

Now, we are together
Now, I found forever

I fall forever in your arms
And I don't decide where I need to be
And I fall forever in your arms
And I don't decide where I feel free

Somehow you came
And took all my pain away
I know, that I can't repay all the love you gave
All the love that you gave

I fall forever in your arms
And I don't decide where I need to be
And I fall forever in your arms
And I don't decide where I feel free

I fall, I fell forever
I fall, forever in your arms
I fall, I fall forever
I don't decide where I feel free
Where I feel free
