I see You getting closer
I feel You coming near
My heart melts as I open my door
And all I see is You there

Yes, my heart cries out

I see You, oh my God
And I need You in my heart
I feel You, oh my Lord
And I need You more than ever before

Time and time again You save me
Same as this, that I fall
I might as well be rendered helpless
'Cause without You, I'm not at all

Yes, my heart cries out

I see You, oh my God
And I need You in my heart
I feel You, oh my Lord
And I need You more than ever before

I see You, oh my God
And I need You in my heart

I see You, oh my God
And I need You in my heart
I feel You, oh my Lord
And I need You more than ever before

Yeah
My heart cries out
