The time is now to tell
All your secrets of deicet
The glorious greed on all the things that caught our eyes

It takes me back to a place
When we are drunken and disgraced
When we were young
Abusing all the things that we had won

You take another and I'll be watching

You never change
You never change
You're all the same
You can't keep me down
You can't keep me down
I'll be your home if you...
Don't you ever need
Something to just believe in

The time is now to tell how we set the streets on fire
The furious heat that paints a sweat across the skin
It takes me back to a time where we refused to walk the line
When we were young
Abusing all the things that we had done

You take another and I'll be watching

You never change
You never change
You're all the same
You can't keep me down
You can't keep me down
I'll be your home if you...
Don't you ever need

Somewhere out along the way
Where something seems to change in your eyes
What's new to me is old to you

And now it's our time to rise

They'll always be another way
They'll always be another way

You never change
You never change
You're all the same
You can't keep me down
You can't keep me down

We'll never change
We'll never change
We're all the same
You can't keep me down
You can't keep me down
I'll be your home if you...
Something to just hold on to
