I can't tell day from night anymore, I think I'm lost
I remember a time when I could see, with you in my sight
I can't forget it, but something's spreading in my head
How far can I go? Will it ever be too late?

All the pain inside, they put the poison in me
All the pain I saw, they put the poison in me
All the pain inside, they put the poison in me
All the pain I caused, poison in me

I saw everything they did
Somehow it seemed true
I took in everything they gave
Somehow it seemed true

How far can I go, 'til it's too late?
How far can I go, 'til it's too late?

All the pain inside me, they put the poison in me
All the pain I saw, they put the poison in me
All the pain inside, they put the poison in me
All the pain I caused, they put this poison in me
