The moon is full but my arms are empty
All night long how I've pleaded and cried
You always said the day that you'd leave me
Would be a cold day in July

Your bags are packed but not a word is spoken
Guess we said everything with goodbye
Time goes so fast when promises got broken
Cause here's that cold day in July

Sun's coming up, coming up, down on main street
Children shout as they're running out to play
Head in my hands here I am standing in my bare feet
Watching you drive away (repeat)

You said that we were going to last forever
You said our love would never die
It looks like spring and feels like sunny weather
But it's a cold day in July

Sun's coming up, coming up, down on main street
Children shout as they're running out to play
Head in my hands here I am standing in my bare feet
Watching you drive away (repeat)

The moon is full my arms are empty
All night long how I've pleaded and cried
Sun's coming up on the day you're gonna leave me
And it's a cold day in July
Here comes that cold day in July
