Look above your head, blackened is the night
Black like endless death, the stars are losing their light Hear the heavy pound, like a thousand hooves its sound
No more the sky is quiet, the stars have lost their light

See the heavy light, the light which makes us blind Only a black cloth seen, where once the stars have been
The sky is falling down, in it we will drown
Mercy won't be showed to us, abandoned by the gods
we trust

What have I done I lived like a man of war Abandoned by our gods, Thor's anger now I saw Lived full of honor and fought like man of war Abandoned by mighty Thor, his anger now I saw

Listen to me you fools, because you must be blind
Thor did not abandon you, you all left him behind
Nothing can save us now

In your heads is grown, the seed which makes us blind Sowed by lying bastards, makes us leave our gods behind
And want us to see their own

Vom falschen Gott erz hlt
Wollen wir nicht den wahren Feind sehn
Den falschen Weg gew hlt
M ssen wir zum Ursprung zur ck gehn
Ewig geeint im Zorn
Zusammen stehen wir hier

Drum lasst uns streiten f r Thor
f r Odin und f r Fimbulthier

What have I done did I live like men of war Abandoned our gods our anger now I saw
Did I live full honor and fight like men of war Abandoned the mighty Thor, his anger now I saw

We are blinded by hypocrisy but take a look above
A star that shows us we can see Where once we came from and where to move
And it is not the only one no we're not alone
We have resisted the evil seed
And all the doubt is gone

Never we will be alone don't need your single god

A new day arises the sun's coming through
The gods have forgiven
Never we will forgive you

This storm which awoke us, will soon come to you Never again you will see, the sun coming through You all will be hit then, not by thunder but swords we Use to make it rain again, red the earth will be

Restoring our honor and fight like men of war
Revenge for our gods our anger then you saw
Even if we should die, we won't be alone
Too late to believe, your god is gone

He never existed
He was a lie
