

Final Breakup "Chains"

Can you hear me scream — the windows are bursting
Am I awake or in a dream
Can someone wake me up — and help me breathing
Am I moving or did I stop

Wake up darling — where do you go today
Will I be able to find you - like yesterday
There you go — and close the door
Will I be able to find you — once more

Can you hear me scream — the windows are bursting
Am I awake or in a dream
Can someone wake me up — and help me breathing
Am I moving or did I stop

I follow you — your footprints right in front of mine
Will I be able to find you — this time
I try to hold it — but my hand is frozen
Will I be able to find you — again

Can you hear me scream — the windows are bursting
Am I awake or in a dream
Can someone wake me up — and help me breathing
Am I moving or did I stop

I can see — the white clouds passing by
And though I feel the rain
The teardrops running — from my eyes
And I forgot my name

Can you hear me scream — the windows are bursting
Am I awake or in a dream
Can someone wake me up — and help me breathing
Am I moving or did I stop
