

Final Breakup "Hold Me"

There were days where colors seemed to fade away Drowning in the shades of grey
But a face
appearing right in front of me A little smile and I can see

Would you hold me and never let me down
Would you catch me
and pull me back to ground Cause
you're the hand I need to hold on to Hope I can spend a lifetime with you

I admit that I

rejected everything I couldn't just let someone in But a rain of feathers falling down the sky
They cover all my fears and make me fly

Would you hold me
and never let me down Would you catch me and pull me back to ground Cause you're the hand I need to hold on to Hope I can spend a lifetime with you
