

Final Chapter "The Temple Of Fear"

[Saviour:]

In the darkness of the void there will be nothing but fear

Have to leave now but where to go

There is no light on my way

In the mirror of my soul reflecting eyes of the damned

They are believers of the unknown

Their tortured souls cry for help

For me to leave the temple again

I lead the armies of the lost ones to the gates

There we will stand when the final battle will take place

A last prayer to the Gods 'let this not be my end'

But now I see the phantom...

[Wizard Queen:]

Ohohohohoh...

Take this curse from me

That I can leave, that I can spread my wings again

Forever to be free

[Choirs:]

Take this curse from all

That I can leave, break the seal forever

Break it to be free again

[Saviour:]

Temple of fear, temple of fear got my soul...

In the darkness of the void there's nothing but fear

I have to leave now before the end is near

As I hold my prayer to the Gods 'let this not be my end'

But now I see the phantom of the lord
