

Final Exit "Revenge"

Visit "Revenge" on MotoLyrics.com

This is revenge
For the blood you've shed

Time has passed us by, I see no end to the slaughter
It seems your sense of responsibility
Is as non-existent as my sympathy for you
You light the fire, you feel it burn, it gets too hot, you walk away

Too late for apologies
Too late for apologies
Too late for apologies
This is revenge, revenge for the blood you've shed

You lit the fire and then just turned and walked away
This is revenge, my friend, this time you're gonna pay
I have no sympathy, you're never gonna learn
You lit the fire and now you're gonna burn
