Never ending dreams

Inside your pain and sorrow
Never ending dreams
Still live close to your wounded heart Don't fall apart, let me hold you in my arms so you can rest your soul
Drifting through the winds of time
Feeling warmth of sweet memories
You'll realize you're not all alone
Always I'll be right here by your side

Don't be afraid, open the door to your heart you'll find
All the dreams that you believe is waiting for you, shining bright
Together we'll make it through Feeling your love, there's nothing to fear when you are near
Through every seasons love grows
You're a part of my life, live with you this precious moment forever

I'm thinking of you always, feeling you inside
I hear only your gentle voice
Your words of love when I close my eyes
My heart can still feel your warm embrace

I'm not afraid, every piece of my broken heart
Shining bright showing the way
I can see a new day and with you
Gonna find my tomorrow dreams
Feeling your love, bringing so much joy into my life
Through every seasons love grows,
You make me feel alive
Share with you this precious moment forever.

Feeling your love, bringing so much joy into my life
Through every seasons love grows,
You make me feel alive
Share with you this precious moment forever.
