

Final Prayer "Broken Mirror"

The streets are plastered with their propaganda
Of beautiful puppets "taking care",
On the path of exploitation.
Millions awake in shame each day,
In fucking shame each day.

Broken mirror - Won't let them take away.
Broken mirror - I'm more than just my body.

A war waged upon us all, against our dignity.
Still beautiful puppets are "taking care",
On the path of exploitation.
Millions awake in shame each day,
In fucking shame each day.

Broken mirror - Won't let them take away.
Broken mirror - I'm more than just my body.

Force-fed lies of the perfect body,
For which millions suffer and die for.
I'm more than just my body.
I still got heart and soul.
