Hate sin not the sinner
A mold of ugliness
Thrown into the fire
Brother Bleed Brother
What have you done, my son, with your desire?

I'll hold my breath until the end.
A prayer for us to make it through
I'll hold my breath.

Miles of conviction to carry the weight
Of all your own mistakes
Open your eyes.
In the end everything,
Everything dies.

And I'd die for you and I'd die
And I'd die for you and I'd die

Sifting seasons through the sand (time moves so slowly)
Spitting treason into your hand (I won't hear it)
Sifting seasons through the sand (time moves so slowly)
Spitting treason into your hand (I won't hear it)

I'll hold my breath until the end.
A prayer for us to make it through.
I'll hold my breath.

I'll hold my breath.
I'll hold my breath.
